DRESDEN, October 18.

THE Body of the late King, our Sovereign, was expofed on the 15th, on a Bed of State, in the Audience Chamber, with all the Marks of Royalty. At the Foot was placed the Hat of his Majefty, in a Box covered with Gold and Silver Taffue, with Four Swords with rich Caſtoons, on which were placed the Electoral Sword, the Scepter, the Globe, and the Collar of the Order of the White Eagle, guarded by two Turkiſh Halbardiers. On each Side were placed Eighteen Silver Stands, with lighted Wax Tapers, and at ſome Diſtance were ſtationed two Aid-de-camps General, two Chamberlains, two Gentlemen of the Chamber, and ſix Carabineers. The Chamber was ſuperbly illuminated, and every one is permitted to enter it, from Six in the Morning to Ten in the Evening.

LONDON, November 6.

A Gentleman of great Wealth and Influence, is now ſoliciting for a Grant of a large Tract of Land on the Confines of Georgia, which he intends to ſettle on the ſame Principles with thoſe of the famous Mr. Penn, Proprietor of Pennſylvania; which, if it takes place, may be a happy Means of eſtabliſhing the other Parts of the Britiſh Colonies on that Continent.

The Poſt of Attorney-General, now vacant, is ſaid to be worth upwards of 7000 L. per Annum; and that the Right Hon. Fletcher Norton, Eſq; the Solicitor-General, Mr. De Grey, and Mr. Sewel, are Three of the Gentlemen talked of as likely to ſucceed Mr. York in that important Office.

Extract of a Letter from Cork, October 27.

"The Good Intent, of Scarborough (Tranſport) with the 43d (Webb's) and 56th (Keppel's) Regiment of Foot, from the Havannah, laſt from Plymouth, are arrived, and Yeſterday marched up to Town. The former Regiment embarked at this Place for America about Nine Years ſince, upon the beginning of the Troubles in that Part of the World, when it was commanded by Col. Dunbar, and conſiſted of 1000 effective Men; ſince when it has ſuffered ſo much, that Nine private Men only are returned. They are Part of about 200 private, moſt of which are Recruits from other Regiments ſince their Return to England. Theſe Regiments were the laſt of our Troops left at the Havannah, which they evacuated on the Arrival of the Spaniſh Garriſon. Two other Tranſports with Troops from America arrived this Day at Cove, and the Men are juſt marched into Town."

Yeſterday a New-York Mail arrived at the General Poſt-Office, by the Duke of Cumberland Packet-boat, Captain Goodrich, having made her Paſſage out and home in Ten Weeks, and was Nineteen Days only from New-York.

The Hollanders are very angry, and ſay, that they have been cajoled, and made the Dupes of England for ſome Years paſt; and that now they have given them a King, in a Stadtholder.

We are informed that there will be no Trial for the North Briton, No. 45.

It is ſaid an eminent Perſon in the Law has declared it as his Opinion, that it would be unconſtitutional to try the ſaid Affair; and that he would not anſwer it to his Conſcience to plead in the Cauſe.

Yeſterday the Committee of Merchants, appointed to redreſs their Grievances at the Houſehold, waited on the Commander in Chief, and were very graciouſly received; and were promiſed, as ſoon as the Attorney General's Opinion on the Seizure of the Silks was known, he would give them all the Satisfaction in his Power; or words to that Purport. Leaves, with this Difference however, that they were deſirous to have Redreſs at all Events.

Extract of a Letter from Amſterdam, October 24.

"By an expreſs from as your coſt to diſcharge for whatever you have due to you in this Country, for there will probably ſoon be ſuch a Change in the Face of Affairs, as will ſurpriſe thoſe Perſons who are not in the Secret. It is reported here that Engliſh Bankers will be required ſhortly to pay it will give much ſo great Satisfaction, that ſhould another War does not, in a small Space of Time, enflame Europe. Frequent Councils are held in this Province, but nothing of Consequence transpires, except that the Dutch, almost to a Man, say, that their Marine must be put on a more respectable Footing, for to its being in so forlorn a State they attribute all the Insults they laft War received from the Englifh."

We hear the States General have prohibited the farther Exportation of Corn, and are forming immenfe Magazines in all their Provinces.

The Augmentation of the Dutch Marine is to facilitate the Views of the Family Compact.

We can aflure the Public, that the French Court, in order to avoid any future Cauſe of Contention with England about the Limits of the Two Nations in North-America, have actually ceded to the Spaniards, the Remainder of their Poſſeſſions in Louiſiana; and as a further Proof of their ſincere Diſpoſition to preſerve the Peace inviolate, Mr. De Guerchy has acquainted our Court in Form, with the Orders actually gone to Dunkirk to fill up that Baſon.

We hear that ſeveral Actions have been brought againſt a certain great Commander, on account of ſome Tranſactions abroad.

We hear that two very intereſting Cauſes, one relating to an Arreſt for Debt, the other an Exciſe Affair, both executed within Doors, and now depending to be tried at the enſuing Term, wherein the important Point, how far an Engliſhman's Houſe is to be reckoned his Caſtle, for his Protection and Safeguard, in future, in Caſes not relating to Felony or High Treaſon, and according to the Principles of the Conſtitution, will be fully and finally decided.

The Prince of Orange, Stadtholder of Holland, has refuſed to confirm the military Promotions of the States General; as that Power is veſted ſolely in him.

Wedneſday the Directors of the Eaſt-India Company received a Packet, brought from their Settlements by a Swediſh Ship, and forwarded to them by the Way of Holland, the Contents of which are ſaid to be of the higheſt Importance.

The French King is to pay his Sardinian Majeſty 8,200,000 Livres in Twelve Payments, in Conſideration of his giving up his Right to Placentia in favour of the Duke of Parma. The firſt Payment, amounting to 683,333 Livres was made the 10th of Auguſt laſt.

Extract of a Letter from Paris, November 1.

"The Parliament of this City engage to procure the King every Year an Hundred and Fifty Millions more than his Majeſty's Revenues produce at preſent, and a Part whereof, which is to go to the Cheſt of Redemption, will be deſtined to pay off the Debts of the Crown.

Nov. 12. Yeſterday the Opinion of the Court of Common Pleas was delivered in regard to the Debates concerning the Trial of Mr. Wilkes's Cauſes, when the Court was pleaſed to give the Defendants leave to withdraw their Pleas of Not Guilty, and to plead Not Guilty, and a ſpecial Juſtification, under the Secretary of States Warrant, to give Judgment of this Term, and to try the Cauſes the Sittings after, and the Defendants in the two privileged Cauſes conſenting to wave their Privilege.

At the ſame Time a Motion was made in the Court of Common Pleas, in Behalf of the King's Meſſengers, that the Fourteen Verdicts obtained againſt them, by the Journeymen Printers, might be ſet aſide for the Exceſs of Damages given by the Jury, and the Court granted Rules for the Plaintiffs ſhewing Cauſe why new Trials ſhould not be ordered in the ſaid Fourteen Cauſes.

PROVIDENCE (Rhode Iſland) December 17.

A Gentleman who arrived here a few Days ago, in 22 Days from Surinam, brings us very unfavourable Accounts of the Situation of Affairs in the Dutch Colony of Berbicia. The Ravages and horrid Cruelties of the Negroes, added to the extreme Sickneſs of the Seaſon, having reduced the White People there to the laſt Extremity, and nothing but the ſpeedy Arrival of Succour can preſerve the Settlement from entire Ruin.—The Mortality among the Whites was ſo great, that out of 180 Men, who were ſent there from St. Euſtatius, in an armed Veſſel, 100 of them died in a ſhort Time.—The Indian Natives of that Country have been very ſerviceable to the Dutch, and ſtill continue in their Intereſt.—About a Week before the Gentleman left Surinam, the Captain of an armed Veſſel arrived there with an Account, that the Negroes having loſt Word to the White People that they intended to pay them a Viſit on a certain Day, a Number of Indians made an Attack on the Negroes by Surpriſe, the Day before their intended Viſit, in which they killed 200 of them, with inconſiderable Loſs on their Side.—That notwithſtanding this Check, the Negroes ſtill maintained their Ground, and poſſeſs the beſt part of the Settlement, managing the Plantations with ſurpriſing Induſtry, for their own Support.

The ſame Gentleman further informs us, that Advice had been received at Surinam from Cayenne, that a Number of Tranſports from France, with 1000 French Families, were arrived in order to ſettle there.—That the Man of War which convoyed thoſe Tranſports on her Paſſage fell in with a Dutch Eaſt-India Ship, homeward-bound, the Crew of which had mutinied, killed the Captain and Mate, and got the Command of the Veſſel, with a rich Cargo on board: The French Captain luckily diſcovering the tragical Affair, took Poſſeſſion of her, and carried her into Cayenne, where the rebellious Crew were under Confinement. We have no further Particulars reſpecting that Affair.

NEW-YORK, January 16.

We are credibly informed, that very lately the Chenuſſies, (Upper Caſtles of the Seneca Indians) have offered to make Peace with the Engliſh: That the Five Nations are ready to declare War againſt the Perfidious Delawares, Shawaneſe, or any other Indian Tribes, who have offenſively acted againſt us. The Canada Indians have all declared in our Favour; but more eſpecially the Cahgnawagas, who, with the other Nations, will commence Hoſtilities againſt all the Savages in Enmity with us. This intereſting News muſt be very agreeable to our expoſed Colonies.

The Merchants of Boſton have preſented a Remonſtrance to the General Court, praying them to uſe their Influence with the Lords Commiſſioners, for leſſening the Duty on Sugar, Melaſſes, &c. and that they were tranſmitting Copies of the ſame to this, and ſeveral other Governments, for their Concurrence and joint Endeavours for effecting that Purpoſe.

MARYLAND, Patowmack River, George-Town, Dec. 26, 1763.

AS I am fully determined on going Home in the Spring 1765, if then alive, in order to make a Settlement with my Employers, Messrs. JOHN GLASSFORD and Company, Merchants in GLASGOW, which I cannot accomplish without making Settlements with my Customers; I take this Method of informing them, That from the Date I have given up the Management of my Store to Mr. Robert Forguson, (who is well known to most of them) that I may have it in my Power to attend properly on settling all my former Transactions, and which I hope I shall not be difficult to get done against the Spring 1765; having now all my Accounts ready for that Purpose, and I flatter myself that none concerned will delay on their Part, for however much I am inclined to be indulgent to those who really have it not in their Power to make Payment soon, yet I am under a Necessity of requiring, that every Person who have open Accounts with me, shall make a Settlement of such Accounts, and their doing it from will prevent them from being put to Expences, as well as Trouble to me. The Store at George-Town on Patowmack River, now under the Management of Mr. Robert Forguson, will be supplied with Goods, &c. as usual, and I have not the least doubt of my giving Satisfaction to all who are Kind enough to favour him with their Custom, as well to my old Customers, as to others who may incline to open a Correspondence with him. My Intention is to return to George-Town as early in the Spring 1766, as I can finish the Business on which I am going Home. All just Claims against me, whether on Account of the Store, or properly my own Account, shall be settled before I depart the Province.
